"Surrendering to Your Greatness" and Aura Readings By Joy Ayscue.

When put into practice, these four tools will empower you to live more authentically, and will give you more personal freedom, joy and peace.

Free seminar and $35.00 for Aura reading Photography ($25.00 if you set up an appointment and pre-pay)

HOW DOES AURAPHOTOGRAPHY WORK? The human being is a complex organism, full of emotion, intelligence and spirit, and these qualities are reflected in his or her energy field, or Aura. One's Aura can change from time to time, as a result of ones own experiences and views on life. However, the overall aura can remain the same, or can be subject to major changes. Auraphotography and its many, various derivatives (Aura Video, WinAura) is based on the understanding of modern technology combined with the information that past cultures have known for millennia. This includes Kirlian photography, electronic acupuncture, biofeedback measurements, as well as old healing methods like acupuncture, acupressure, Ayurveda, and so forth. Using this wealth of knowledge, we can create technologies that can help us view the colored radiant Aura and allow us to open up new possibilities of perception for our inner worlds. The method our technologies use to read ones Aura is known as "Biofeedback", since a physical reading of one's bio-signs is the main method of a Aura analysis.

Each of our products uses a hand sensor. A person would put their left (or right) hand onto the hand sensors. This in turn would allow a particular product to measure the standardized biofeedback parameter. The hand sensor itself has various contact points on them; these are connected with certain organs of the body, as well as measure the electromagnetic field of the user and can thus deliver information about the energetic and auric qualities of that person. The hand sensor can also measure deviations in temperature, humidity and static electricity in the environment and the person, allowing for greater precision in data gathering. These data parameters are then projected as a radiant, colored aura field around the body on either a photo or onto a computer or television screen. In no time thereafter, a brilliant color photo or computer printout can be presented to the user. In short, these kinds of biofeedback probes can pick up your spiritual energy. The camera or video device can then display this information as a colorful field around your body. The colors actually reflect your spiritual and auric state.

Baron Heiden is a generational divination pagan of German/Spanish background. The art was passed to him at an early age; his family matriarchs as a child taught him the interpretation of symbols and signs with their connections to insight. He was a contributing writer for the brief publication "Sacred star journal" under his then craft name Darius Earthfey. It was an enjoyable but brief time teaching divination arts, Kitchen Witchery, and Green Living. After many years of personal metaphysical education, he found his home in the Wilson Pagans.

Natalie comes from a long line of psychic's originating in Eastern Europe. She also has a way with animals and is able to hear what a pet thinks, Natalie thought she wanted to understand dogs more because so many of her clients would come to her with Pet problems and it seemed that the dog's did not understand why human's act the way they do so she took it a step further and found a trainer and began to learn how to train Police, Search and Rescue, Cadaver, and service dogs as well as learning the psychology of a dogs mind. Now most of the time when Natalie is asked to come and train a dog she ends up teaching the clients how to understand their beloved pet and to become one with the dog so they have a happy life with their owners and no more bad behaved dogs. Natalie can also do healing's for people by her being so empathic she would read a person and literally pick up their illness so she went and became Reiki one level certified so she could just release the illness and heal the person who had aches and pains. Natalie is what we like to refer to as a medical intuitive and can help you with what ails you... If you would like to make an appointment or want a reading by phone I except PayPal or can do it in person for you. Please feel free to call me at 252-235-0014 252-235-0014. Sola Dragonhart, also known as Stephanie. I have been working with runes and pendulums since I was a little girl. I have always been drawn to the runes. I remember discovering them and feeling like I had found part of myself. I have studied them off and on since childhood, but have really devoted myself to them for the past eight years ago. I cannot remember the first time I worked with a pendulum, but I do know that my mother discovered my natural ability for them when I was just a little girl. I love to pass on my knowledge and I not only use runes and pendulums for myself and others, but enjoy teaching others how to use them as well.

And Sam and Sage will assist with tarot. And a few of our finest Reiki Practitioners will also be here for your needs.

The following is a little of what the book is about: Have you ever been afraid? Have you ever been angry? Have you ever been hurt? Have you ever felt that you were all alone in the world and that nobody understood you? If so, then The Tree of Silence was written for you. It doesn't matter who or what your monster may be, this book of simple teachings helps you understand that unconditional love is the tool to complete healing. It reminds you that everything and everyone is love and light, and although the word forgiveness is never mentioned, it presents to you the key that unlocks the unforgiving heart. The Tree of Silence is a book that can be understood by a child, yet will hold the attention of the adult audience until the last word because it is everyone's story.
